

COST REDUCTION TECHNIQUES FOR MAINTENANCE

OVERVIEW

This program looks into breaking down all these questions and finding where to start and where to change. With all that is new regulation and standards being imposed by local and international authorities, it is vital for us to embrace these requirements and changes that are significant around us, understand them and benchmark them based on global practices so as to be cost efficient.

TARGET MARKET

- Maintenance team
- Technician
- Engineer
- Manager

COURSE OUTLINE

Module 1: Introduction to Cost Reduction to Maintenance

Module 2: Change Management Requirements

Module 3: Evolves in the requirement for maintenance

Module 4: Understanding your asset – the first stage.

Module 5: Formation of the strategies

Module 6: Record keeping

OBJECTIVES

At the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Create an in-depth understanding of maintenance activities and its value to bottom line of an organization;
- Improve the skills and techniques to identify, measure and manage cost to all maintenance-related activities;
- Diagnose the existing performance gap in maintenance work and introduce performance standards to improve for results;
- Learn how to identify the different types of wastage in all maintenance-related work and implement waste elimination measures.

SBL CLAIMABLE

If you have any enquiries, please contact:

+60 (3) 5621 3630 or email:

info@comfori.com