

OVERVIEW

When you speak English, do you get worried that you are saying things wrongly? Do you feel confused by English grammar? Embarrassed by your pronunciation? Have difficulty expressing your ideas?

If you answered yes to these questions, your lack of proficiency in English might prevent you from getting the promotion you want, the clients you need, and the respect you deserve.

Don't let your English stop you from achieving your goals.

OBJECTIVE

At the end of the workshop, participants will be exposed to topics including:

- Pronunciation (pur-CHASE or PUR-chase)
- Phrases (I suggest he goes or I suggest him to go)
- Time phrases (two days before or before two days)
- Verb tenses (have taken or had taken)
- Small words (for two years or since two years)
- 'to' and 'ing' (consider to go or consider going)
- is or are (the number of boys is or the number of boys are)
- Word forms (will success, will succeed or will be succeed)
- Common errors (I'll see you two days later)
